- 1
- 2 House hunting has become the leading American pastime.
House finding is one of our greatest problems. AUG 14 1919 ✓
- 2-A "Own your own home" read the advertisements. "But where will I get it?"
asks the reader of the ad.
- 3 The purpose of this picture is to supply an answer to the question of countless Americans.
- 4 Same old story.
- 5 Having found the girl it is up to him to find a home.
But homes are scarce, rents high, evictions frequent.
- 6 They consult an old friend for advice.
- 7 The evening paper offers a happy solution.
- 8 They discover that you can have a home, ready-made, delivered and set out to investigate.
- 9 Hundreds of plans for hundreds of homes.
- 10 Planning Homes.
- 11 Selecting One.
- 12 They order their home.
- 13 They decide to see their home built.
- 14 Logs today, Homes tomorrow.
- 15 One log makes many boards.
- 16 Now for the house the factory builds.
- 17 Glueing under ten-ton pressure.
- 18 All packed, their house is ready for shipping.
- 19 Now to find a place for the house.
- 20 On the way they see some factory built homes.
- 21 They pick a lot.
- 22 The next day building starts.
- 23 Watch it grow.
- 24 The logs are now a house.
- 25 And now this story can end happily.
- 26 Wedding bells, rice, shoes, tinware.
